COMMUNION SERVICE Wednesday, Jan. 17 at 7:30 p.m.
Please come support the religion program.

CHRISTMAS decorations will be taken down this week. Anyone wanting a Poinsettia can take one home after Mass today.

NEW MINISTRY SCHEDULES will be made out in January. If you want taken off a list or would like to join a ministry, please contact Donna Hemmelgarn 678-8188.

FROM FR. WALLING: THANK YOU, SUE HOMAN! Sue, who has administered our parish CCD program for the past ten years, has decided to retire. Along with her husband Ron, Sue's dedication and hard work have been a great blessing for our parish, and she will be missed. I am now beginning the search for a new CCD administrator, and I ask for parishioners, especially parents of the children in the CCD program, to prayerfully consider applying for the position. Please let me know if you are interested. I would like to have Sue's successor in place by the first of March.

OFFERTORY LIST is no longer put out. A calendar is hanging on the bulletin board at the entrance of church. Please sign up for a Sunday that works for you. We are doing this in hopes that there is someone to volunteer for each Mass.

DONUT SUNDAY Jan. 21st Please join us in the school hall following Mass. (CYO)

YOUNG FARMERS SALE Saturday, Feb. 10th. Sign-up sheet for chili and pies, and for workers in the rear of church.

NEW MEMBERS Charles & Kaly (Bettinger) Heitkamp and their son Briston, Keith and Katie (Lefeld) and their daughter Summer, and Steven & Jodi (Moorman) Wenning and Taylor McGee. The parish welcomes them.

150th ANNIVERSARY TIME CAPSULE See our website for the items that were put in the time capsule. (under bulletins)

OUR MAGNETS THAT COMMEMORATED OUR PARISH'S 150TH ANNIVERSARY ARE STILL AVAILABLE IN THE CLUSTER OFFICE FOR $12.

THANKS TO ALL WHO HELPED WITH THE PROJECTS, ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS FOR THE CELEBRATION OF THE 150TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF HOLY TRINITY PARISH!!!

SOCIAL ACTION NEWS A chaplain from the Dayton Correctional Institute (DCI) made a plea for personal items for women prisoners. The fastest growing prison population in Ohio is women, noticeably poor, white women. While in prison the women receive $13 a month for personal items and other items that can be purchased within the prison. Those with no family support, struggle to purchase soap, deodorant, toothpaste, shampoo and things we take for granted. Our parish Social Action Committee will have boxes at the Church doors January 20-January 29. Anyone who can donate supplies, can place the items in these boxes. All items will be taken to the Dayton Correctional Institute (DCI). From our abundance to their needs!

GUARDIAN ANGEL PROGRAM we are once again looking to aid those teens attending the Steubenville Youth Conference. We are asking generous parishioners to donate $100 toward each teen's trip. This year we have 49 teens attending! A huge thank you to those who have already donated! May God bless you!

JANUARY 14, 2018 SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PRAYER: "Pagan philosophers said that man is an uprooted tree, from which we can conclude how necessary prayer is for man, since if a tree does not have sufficient earth to cover its roots it cannot live; neither can a man live who does not give special attention to heavenly things. Now prayer, according to most of the Fathers, is nothing other than a raising of the mind to heavenly things; others say that it is a petition; but the two opinions are not at all opposed, for while raising your mind to God, we can ask Him for what seems necessary.

The principal petition which we ought to make to God is that of union of our wills with His, and the final cause of prayer lies in desiring only God. . . you have only one soul, and there is only one God; give your soul to Him and He will give Himself to you. The final cause of prayer, then, ought not to be to desire those tendernesses and consolations which Our Lord sometimes gives, since union does not consist in that, but rather in conforming to the will of God." On Prayer: The Sermons of St. Francis De Sales, TAN Books, translated by Nuns of the Visitation, page 4, 5.

SHARING OUR FAITH WITH OTHERS: On Evangelization in the Modern World, apostolic exhortation of Pope Paul VI: #80 Our appeal here is inspired by the fervor of the greatest preachers and evangelizers, whose lives were devoted to the apostolate. Among these we are glad to point out those whom we have proposed to the veneration of the faithful during the course of the Holy Year. They have known how to overcome many obstacles to evangelization.

Such obstacles are also present today, and we shall limit ourself to mentioning the lack of fervor. It is all the more serious because it comes from within. It is manifested in fatigue, disenchantment, compromise, lack of interest and above all lack of joy and hope. We exhort all those who have the task of evangelizing, by whatever title and at whatever level, always to nourish spiritual fervor[130] This fervor demands first of all that we should know how to put aside the excuses which would impede evangelization. The most insidious of these excuses are certainly the ones which people claim to find support for in such and such a teaching of the Council. Thus one too frequently hears it said, in various terms, that to impose a truth, be it that of the Gospel, or to impose a way, be it that of salvation, cannot but be a violation of religious liberty. Besides, it is added, why proclaim the Gospel when the whole world is saved by uprightness of heart? We know likewise that the world and history are filled with "seeds of the Word"; is it not therefore an illusion to claim to bring the Gospel where it already exists in the seeds that the Lord Himself has sown?
