BLESSING FOR EXPECTANT PARENTS next Sunday, Feb. 4 after Mass.

FROM FR. WALLING: THANK YOU, SUE HOMAN! Sue, who has administered our parish CCD program for the past ten years, has decided to retire. Along with her husband Ron, Sue's dedication and hard work have been a great blessing for our parish, and she will be missed. I ask for parishioners, especially parents of the children in the CCD program, to prayerfully consider applying for the position of CCD Administrator. Please let me know if you are interested. I would like to have Sue's successor in place by the first of March.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING UPCOMING Monday, February 26. Agenda items are welcomed. Please contact Fr. Walling or Larry Schmitmeyer ahead of time.

OUR MAGNETS THAT COMMEMORATED OUR PARISH'S 150TH ANNIVERSARY ARE STILL AVAILABLE IN THE CLUSTER OFFICE FOR $12.

THANKS TO ALL WHO HELPED WITH THE PROJECTS, ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS FOR THE CELEBRATION OF THE 150TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF HOLY TRINITY PARISH!!!

SOCIAL ACTION NEWS A chaplain from the Dayton Correctional Institute (DCI) made a plea for personal items for women prisoners. The fastest growing prison population in Ohio is women, noticeably poor, white women. While in prison the women receive $13 a month for personal items and other items that can be purchased within the prison. Those with no family support, struggle to purchase soap, deodorant, toothpaste, shampoo and things we take for granted. Our parish Social Action Committee will have boxes at the Church doors January 20-January 29. Anyone who can donate supplies, can place the items in these boxes. All items will be taken to the DCI. From our abundance to their needs!

GUARDIAN ANGEL PROGRAM we are once again looking to aid those teens attending the Steubenville Youth Conference. We are asking generous parishioners to donate $100 toward each teen's trip. So far, we have 15 teens sponsored out of 49 who registered. You can write your check to Holy Trinity with "Guardian Angel" in the memo. A huge thank you to those who have already donated! May God bless you!

EXTREME OLYMPIC GAMES, February 11th

The 2018 Cluster Mission has come and gone. Thank you to all who helped make it happen and to all who participated. What a joy to hear 500 voices raised in praise to Our Lord at Eucharistic Adoration. So what's next?

*Pledge to do the 1% Challenge. Give God 15 minutes of your day for 30 days praying with his Word. A postcard on how to do this and suggested scriptures can be found in all of our cluster parishes. This will have a big impact on our individual lives, but can you imagine what an impact it can have in our parishes to have so many of our parishioners praying to Our Lord and growing closer to him? After that first 30 days, you will want to keep right on going! Don't forget to sign the bulletin board. A friend or neighbor might see your name and be encouraged to try the challenge, too! Find a prayer partner to pray with or to help you stick with it.

*Sign up for a weekly email containing inspiration and tips to deepen your prayer life.

*Join in a study on prayer to be held on Thursday from Feb. 15 through March 22 from 7-8:30 pm in the Fr. Yauss Center.

*Want to talk to someone about your prayer life? Give us a call! Fr. Walling, Fr. Witt, and the staff would love to assist you.

"I am certain of it that Our Lord will eventually bring to the harbor of salvation, the one who gives himself to prayer." St. Teresa of Avila

JANUARY 28, 2018 FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SHARING OUR FAITH WITH OTHERS: We have finished sharing Pope Paul VI's encyclical on evangelization in the modern world. We now share some of the beautiful writing of Pope Benedict XVI on God's love. Knowing, accepting, and sharing that God is love is central to all our evangelizing efforts.

DEUS CARITAS EST, God is Love, encyclical of Pope Benedict XVI: #1 "God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him" (1 Jn 4:16). These words from the First Letter of John express with remarkable clarity the heart of the Christian faith: the Christian image of God and the resulting image of mankind and its destiny. In the same verse, Saint John also offers a kind of summary of the Christian life: "We have come to know and to believe in the love God has for us".

We have come to believe in God's love: in these words the Christian can express the fundamental decision of his life. Being Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction. Saint John's Gospel describes that event in these words: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should ... have eternal life" (3:16). In acknowledging the centrality of love, Christian faith has retained the core of Israel's faith, while at the same time giving it new depth and breadth. The pious Jew prayed daily the words of the Book of Deuteronomy which expressed the heart of his existence: "Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God is one Lord, and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul and with all your might" (6:4-5). Jesus united into a single precept this commandment of love for God and the commandment of love for neighbour found in the Book of Leviticus: "You shall love your neighbour as yourself" (19:18; cf. Mk 12:29-31). Since God has first loved us (cf. 1 Jn 4:10), love is now no longer a mere "command"; it is the response to the gift of love with which God draws near to us.

PRAYER: An excerpt from On Prayer: The Sermons of St. Francis de Sales, pg. 8-9:

Let us see now if all people can pray. I say yes, and that no one can excuse himself from doing so, not even heretics. Moreover, there was once a pagan [Cf. Acts 10P:4, 30-31] who made a prayer which was so excellent that it deserved to be presented before the throne of the Divine Majesty; and God granted him the grace of the means of being instructed in the Faith, and afterward he was a great saint among the Christians.

It is true that great sinners experience great difficulty in praying. They resemble very young birds who, as soon as they have their feathers, are able to fly by themselves by means of their wings; but if they happen to perch upon birdlime which has been prepared to catch them who does not see that this sticky substance will adhere to their wings so that afterward they will be unable to fly? Thus it happens to sinners—who so entangle themselves and settle into the sticky substance of vice, and so allow themselves to be stuck to sin, that they cannot soar to Heaven by prayer. Nevertheless, so long as they are capable of grace, they are also capable of prayer. It is only the devil who is incapable of prayer, because he alone is incapable of love.

MARRIAGE EVENING This year we will not be having our annual Valentine celebration since we had shared our marriage evening with St. Henry in November with speaker Teresa Tomeo and her husband Deacon Dominick Pastore in October, 2017.

PATRIOTIC ROSARY on Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. at St. Mary, Philothea. Please pray for our country.
