BULLETIN FLASHBACKS

(Enjoy the history)

October 24, 1982: Halloween Tricks: when out "tricking" this fall, it is very wrong and sinful to do tricks which cause damage and vandalism to personal property. Using spray cans of paint to leave marks on windows, cars, houses, sidewalks and buildings is uncalled for. Doing other types of mischievous damage is not cute and a discredit to our community.

October 26, 2000: Saints Story Hour for children every Thursday before First Friday of the month 1pm, beginning Nov. 6, Church basement. Mothers & fathers welcome to stay or spend the time upstairs praying during Eucharistic Adoration.

October 27, 1957: Tuesday evening, October 29, Ladies Auxiliary of Knights of St. John will have their annual Halloween Party in the West Elementary School at 8 p.m. come masked or a 25c donation will be asked of the unmasked.

SHARING OUR FAITH WITH OTHERS: On Evangelization in the Modern World, apostolic exhortation of Pope Paul VI: #64 history in fact shows, whenever an individual Church has cut itself off from the universal Church and from its living and visible center-sometimes with the best of intentions, with theological, sociological, political or pastoral arguments, or even in the desire for a certain freedom of movement or action- it has escaped only with great difficulty (if indeed it has escaped) from two equally serious dangers. The first danger is that of a withering isolationism, and then, before long, of a crumbling away, with each of its cells breaking away from it just as it itself has broken away from the central nucleus. The second danger is that of losing its freedom when, being cut off from the center and from the other Churches which gave it strength and energy, it finds itself all alone and a prey to the most varied forces of slavery and exploitation.

The more an individual Church is attached to the universal Church by solid bonds of communion, in charity and loyalty, in receptiveness to the Magisterium of Peter, in the unity of the lex orandi which is also the lex credendi, in the desire for unity with all the other Churches which make up the whole- the more such a Church will be capable of translating the treasure of faith into the legitimate variety of expressions of the profession of faith, of prayer and worship, of Christian life and conduct and of the spiritual influence on the people among which it dwells. The more will it also be truly evangelizing, that is to say, capable of drawing upon the universal patrimony in order to enable its own people to profit from it, and capable too of communicating to the universal Church the experience and the life of this people, for the benefit of all.

REVIEW OF MASS STIPENDS POLICY Masses are scheduled on a deceased person's anniversary of birth (b), wedding (w) and death (d) and are $5 per Mass. We do not schedule Mass intentions for the "living and deceased members". Due to bookkeeping concerns, Masses are scheduled for an individual for only one year in advance. You can schedule 2018 Masses at this time.

PRAYER youth catechism, paragraph #506: Is prayer not just a sort of conversation with yourself? The distinctive feature about prayer is precisely the fact that one goes from Me to You, from self-centeredness to radical openness. Someone who is really praying can experience the fact that God speaks—and that often he does not speak as we expect and would like. Those who are experienced in prayer report that a person very often comes out of prayer session different from the way he went in. Sometimes expectations are met: you are sad and find consolation; you lack confidence and receive new strength. It can also happen, though, that you would like to forget pressures but are made even more uneasy; that you would like to be left in peace and instead receive an assignment. A real encounter with God—the kind that occurs again and again in prayer—can shatter our preconceptions about both God and prayer.
