ANNUAL PARISH CHURCH CLEANING Mon., July 31st at 6 p.m. Men, women and young adults are asked to help. Bring cleaning rags, buckets and ladders. Excellent opportunity for families to work together.

THANK YOU, AMY HESS! Staff position open. As she wrote in her newsletter inserted in the July 2nd bulletin, Amy Hess, who has been our parish youth coordinator for the past five years, has decided to return to classroom teaching full-time, and so will be leaving us at the end of this month. She has been a great blessing for our entire parish (and cluster), not just for our young people, and we will miss her. More recently in Coldwater, Amy has been involved with adult evangelization work, as well as with youth ministry, and so we are advertising her replacement as a parish staff-level position which will do both. For a fuller explanation of the job opening, go to our cluster website www.coldwatercluster.org (under bulletins) or ask for a copy from the cluster office.

SUMMER CANTORS NEEDED We are in need of cantors to fill all the Mass times on the weekend. This is a perfect opportunity for young people and college students home for the summer to help serve our parish and lead our worship. If you are not comfortable singing alone, grab a couple of friends to sing with you. All that is necessary is to contact me, to set up a rehearsal time and we will go from there. There is a sign-up notepad on my desk in the Music room that goes through the month of September. The Mixed and youth choirs will start up again when our CCD classes begin. Sign up for one, two, three or however many you wish!!!

MERCER HEALTH 5K CHALLENGE for dates and times visit www.mercerhealth5kchallenge.com.

SHARING OUR FAITH WITH OTHERS: On Evangelization in the Modern World, apostolic exhortation of Pope Paul VI: #49 Jesus' last words in St. Mark's Gospel confer on the evangelization which the Lord entrusts to His apostles a limitless universality: "Go out to the whole world; proclaim the Good News to all creation." [73] The Twelve and the first generation of Christians understood well the lesson of this text and other similar ones; they made them into a program of action. Even persecution, by scattering the apostles, helped to spread the Word and to establish the Church in ever more distant regions. The admission of Paul to the rank of the apostles and his charism as the preacher to the pagans (the non Jews) of Jesus' Coming underlined this universality still more.

www.formed.org: Tired of what the TV has to offer for your kids? Check out all that is available for children and youth on Formed.org. There are some great animated programs on saints: Francis Xavier, Augustine, Francis, Bernadette, Perpetua, Patrick, Nicholas, the story of Fatima (did you know this year is the 100th anniversary of the Blessed Virgin's appearances there?). Also there are some great Brother Francis videos that explain the Eucharist, the Mass, and the Resurrection. JoyToons features all the songs featured in Brother Francis videos. Download the free app and take Formed.org wherever you go.

PRAYER Paragraph 486-487, What do Christians express by prayer postures? Christians bring their life before God through the language of the body: They cast themselves down before God. They fold their hands in prayer or stretch them out (the Orante position). They genuflect (bend the knee) or kneel before the All-Holy God. They listen to the Gospel while standing. They meditate while seated.

Standing in the presence of God expresses reverence (you stand up when a superior enters) and also vigilance and readiness (you are ready to set out on a journey immediately). If at the same time the hands are outstretched in praise of God (the Orante position), the person praying assumes the original gesture of praise.

While sitting in God's presence, the Christian listens to what is happening interiorly; he ponders the Word in his heart (Lk 2:51) and meditates on it.

By kneeling, a person makes himself small in the presence of God's greatness. He recognizes his dependence on God's grace.

By prostrating himself, a person adores God.

By folding the hands, a person overcomes distraction, "recollects himself" (gathers his thoughts) and unites himself to God. Folded hands are also the original gesture of petition.
