She has been a great blessing for our entire parish (and cluster), not just for our young people, and we will miss her. More recently in Coldwater, Amy has been involved with adult evangelization work, as well as with youth ministry, and so we are advertising her replacement as a parish staff-level position which will do both. For a fuller explanation of the job opening, go to our cluster website www.coldwatercluster.org (under bulletins) or ask for a copy from the cluster office.

HOLY TRINITY YOUTH MINISTRY NEWS

Amy Hess ahess@coldwatercluster.org

This was in the bulletin a couple weeks ago, but in case you missed it, here it is again.

Dear Parish Family,

It is with mixed emotions that I write my final newsletter for Holy Trinity. As of August 1, I will be embarking on a new chapter in my life and heading back to teaching full-time. It's hard to believe that five years have come and gone.

To the parishioners...thank you for always supporting our program. Between supporting us spiritually and then again financially, I am indebted to you. To have a parish that sees the necessity of encouraging the youth is such a treasure, and I'm so appreciative that you have been a guiding force behind its success.

To the parents...thank you for letting me serve your children. Thank you for trusting me with their hearts, their crosses, and their walks with the Lord. I am forever grateful for your friendships, and I will always pray for your families.

To my kids...the hardest thank you of all. You will always be in my heart. We have done so much together: laughed, cried, prayed, and everything in between. I have watched you grow up and witnessed your love for God, His Church, and for serving others. You have inspired me to be better, and I will miss your continual presence in my life. Please know I am here for you always and be assured I will be praying for your intentions daily.

The day before he died, St. Thomas More wrote a letter to his daughter from the Tower of London. In it, he wrote, "Farewell...pray for me and I shall for you, and for all your friends, that we may merrily meet in heaven." Please pray for me as I will assuredly do for you, and if I don't see you before, may we all one day merrily meet in Heaven.

In the love of Christ, Amy

JULY 30, 2017 SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CLUSTER INFORMATION

ETERNAL REST to Emily Minch whose funeral was Monday, July 24 at St. Anthony; Ken Spoltman whose services were Monday, July 24 at Hogenkamp Funeral Home and James Broeker whose funeral was Friday, July 28 at Holy Trinity (served by luncheon team 1).

K OF C SWEET CORN. Watch the sign south of the Fr. Yauss building for selling dates. Notices also to be posted on Holy Trinity Facebook page.

SHARING OUR FAITH WITH OTHERS: On Evangelization in the Modern World, apostolic exhortation of Pope Paul VI: #50 In the course of twenty centuries of history, the generations of Christians have periodically faced various obstacles to this universal mission. On the one hand, on the part of the evangelizers themselves, there has been the temptation for various reasons to narrow down the field of their missionary activity. On the other hand, there has been the often humanly insurmountable resistance of the people being addressed by the evangelizer. Furthermore, we must note with sadness that the evangelizing work of the Church is strongly opposed, if not prevented, by certain public powers. Even in our own day it happens that preachers of God's Word are deprived of their rights, persecuted, threatened or eliminated solely for preaching Jesus Christ and His Gospel. But we are confident that despite these painful trials the activity of these apostles will never meet final failure in any part of the world.

Despite such adversities, the Church constantly renews her deepest inspiration, that which comes to her directly from the Lord: To the whole world! To all creation! Right to the ends of the earth! She did this once more at the last Synod, as an appeal not to imprison the proclamation of the Gospel by limiting it to one sector of mankind or to one class of people or to a single type of civilization. Some examples are revealing.

www.formed.org: Tired of what the TV has to offer for your kids? Check out all that is available for children and youth on Formed.org. There are some great animated programs on saints: Francis Xavier, Augustine, Francis, Bernadette, Perpetua, Patrick, Nicholas, the story of Fatima (did you know this year is the 100th anniversary of the Blessed Virgin's appearances there?). Also there are some great Brother Francis videos that explain the Eucharist, the Mass, and the Resurrection. JoyToons features all the songs featured in Brother Francis videos. Download the free app and take Formed.org wherever you go.

 PRAYER Paragraph #492: Does my personal prayer have something to do with the prayer of the Church? In the Church's public worship, in her Liturgy of the Hours and in Holy Mass, common prayers are recited that come from Sacred Scripture or from the Tradition of the Church. They unite the individual with the praying community of the Church. [CCC 2655-2658, 2662] Christian prayer is not a private matter, but it is very personal. Personal prayer becomes purified, expands, and is strengthened when it regularly flows into the prayer of the whole Church. It is a great and beautiful sign when believers throughout the earth are united at the same time in the same prayers and thereby sing one hymn of praise to God.
